Last Week's Winners

Washington, D. C., March 4, 1917. Classified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir—As a steady patron and constant reader of The Washington Times, I want to recommend Galblum Bros., 720 11th Street N. W., as a first class place to get a hat. Their prices are reasonable and all of their work for me and my friends has been perfectly satisfactory. I am going to have them do some more work for me in a few days and hope you who read this will send them a trial on your spring hat. Yours truly, (MRS.) S. L. DURYEE.

Dear Sir—Being a constant reader of your paper, I noticed the advertisement of the Vienna Hat Factory, and sent them my last year's hat to be reblocked. It could not have been done better and I will heartily recommend the Vienna Hat Factory to my friends. Yours truly, (MISS) ETHEL WOLFE.

Dear Sir—I had been wondering what to do with my hat summer's hat. I had been thinking over this question all day. The matter was early solved when I saw the ad of the Ladies' Capital Hat Shop in The Times. I took my hat there and it came back looking like new. I will gladly recommend this company to any one. Sincerely yours, M. E. C.

Dear Sir—While employed at the Record Auto Co. as assistant manager of the necessary department I had the opportunity to observe the superiority of the Acme Wagon Company bodies which we handled; they are superior both in workmanship and material. They are built on attractive lines, and give universal satisfaction. I sincerely recommend the Acme Wagon Company's delivery bodies. Respectfully yours, LEO F. ZWISLER.
